In registering for this group I agree to the following statements:

Promoting Safety of the group

I will keep the group safe by my conversation, my confidentially, my concern for other members of the group. I will not pursue individual contact without mutual consent of the others.

Total confidentiality

If I speak of any sacred secrets I hear in group, I will speak to God in prayer for those who need it.

Not to give advice

We don't know all the circumstances of the situations and it changes the dynamics and the safety of the group if people are advising each other. We can speak, "If that were me, I would..."

Dating

I realize I am entering a group of wounded souls, just like mine. I commit not to pursue a close relationship with the opposite sex. I know I am not ready nor healed enough to be in a relationship.
